

UVic Faculty of Human and Social Development, Indigenous Governance and the Native Students Union Present an evening of discussion as part of

INDIGENOUS RESURGENCE WEEK 2013

INM: From Idle No More to the Indigenous Nationhood Movement

Tuesday, February 26, 2013

Public Forum

University of Victoria
First People's House
7-9pm PST

Online Discussion:
#F26Forum

SPEAKERS:

TAIAIAKE ALFRED

(Kahnawake Mohawk, Professor, Indigenous Governance, UVic)

TOGHESTIY

(Hereditary Chief of the Likhts'amisyu Clan, Wet'suwet'en)

FREDA HUSON

(Wet'suwet'en, Spokesperson for the Unis'tot'en Action Camp)

DAWN SMITH

(Nuu-chah-nulth, LE, NONET/UVic Education)

FRED SPECK

(Gwawaenuk Tribe / Kwakwaka'wakw, Idle No More Organizer)

Indigenous peoples are rising together to protect our lands and rebuild our nations. But what is at stake in this process? What does Indigenous nationhood look like? And what is required to build a lasting Indigenous resurgence movement that includes both Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples?

Join us for this important discussion. All nations and peoples welcome.

LIVESTREAM: <http://www.spreecast.com/events/idle-to-no-more-to-indigenous-nationhood>

>>> LIMITED SEATING. PLEASE COME EARLY TO AVOID DISAPPOINTMENT <<<

RSVP on Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/events/164768627005844/>

O Si'em na Si'aya. We raise our hands to the Elders and Chiefs of these territories where we are guests. In a good way, we thank our host nations of the Greater Victoria area and acknowledge the unceded homelands of the Lekwungen and WSANEC peoples.